As elsewhere announced, old Jess Grant is defunct. The dispatches of the 1st announce that he was immediately interred. We had always suspected as

Ex-Congressman Ashley, of Ohio, is going into the manufacture of steel. Being a slippery-tingered politician, he what he used to do at Washington.

There are 58 petticoated preachers and 530 bustled dectors in the country. Let more grave-yards be laid out at once, and scores of masculine sinners take out fire-insurance policies on their souls.

Old John Robinson, in a huge advertisement enumerating the resistless at tractions of his circus, specially mentions Bare-back Male and Female Equestrians." Bare-backs be hanged!-its the bare ankles that delight our cultivated Lexingtonian youths.

The lunatics in the Alabama asylut edit, compose, print and publish a paper called the Meteor. A friend has sent us : copy. It reads like the St. Louis Republican, for which it might be mistaken. were it not that the Meteor is the least crazy and the most witty. "Men are What Women Make Them is the title of a new book. This is the have yet seen in print. If true, the best thing women can do is to go to work and make the most of them over again, as the

S. C., as the Abbeville Medium informs us, lately dug up buried treasure to the value of seventeen million dollars. Whew! That's too heavy to travel. Fetch the and we'll keep the item on its tour of dissemination.

A dispatch says that "strong addresse have been sent to Gov. Dix and 'President' Grant, on the subject of the kidnap ping of Italian children. " Strong whisky rather than addresses would be more likely to move his high-low-shacknastiness. Tumblebug the onest, to stop the infernal traffic. Ten to one, the rapacio skunk has a corner in Italian children. Oh, Columbia, the gem of the ocean how art thou busted! America, bright daughter of Freedom, how art thou tallen! Down, down, forever and forever down. since the dark day when hall and Padiculism gat hold upon thee! Sound, lead-ma and tell us whether any lower depths re mair, when a Hoar is the most prominen candidate for Chief Justice of the United States-buriesquingly so-called.

Oregon mothers send their babies visit ing by express. Not long since a brace of them were shipped, C. O. D., a distance of five hundred miles, arriving at their destination right side up with care, as ties, now their conductors have learned that the new farmers' movement runs counter to the longer continuance in power of the old journeyman politicians, are dependence can be placed in the professions of any old-party backs, whether oratorical or newspaperial. We imagine that the farmers of the country care about as much for their displeasure as their hypocritical fawning.

Gen. Jeff. C. Davis-(not the illustrious, patriot hero and statesman, who head- neries, rat-domiciles, stables and old ed the last grand struggle for liberty and timent; but the Hoosier scab, who assas-Which being interpreted into the plain, unvarnished vulgate, means that he was without rival on earth, or in Puritaniggerdemonium under the dirt.

logg. Governor of Louisiana by the (dis) grace of Grant, with having attempted to striking one, as the whole power of the istration in the world, with its suborned witnesses and cowardly, gorilla - faced of your yellow-legged roosters. Talk henchmen, was brought to bear against of it at Sunday-School, soirce, prayerost good, and thus save the state turbling dastard, whose appreciation of his own deserts makes him fear an assassin in every Lush, a pistol-shot in every ginger-

DEFUNCT. Jacob R. Winters, once a headhellion of Missouri Radicalism, kicked the bucket, passed in his checks. and gave up his ghost, on the 21st nosed cherubs; -we'll agree to pay for of June, at Trinidad, Colorado. A man of brilliant talents and diversipreacher by profession, and an un- does." have opened war on a gang of mitigated rascal by practice, desperadoes, cut-throats and robbers.

The Modecs are not playing with their eloquent, plausible, unscrupulous, he, foes. The other day, they ordered five figure in the diabolical panorama of and burned their houses behind them. bumbuggeries! Down with yankeeour state politics. Editor and part. There is unfortunately a shade of right to owner of the infamous Hannibal some of these arbitrary, law-enforcing, the Fletcher-Rodmaniacal dynasty, process, murdered victims and offi-State senator and supervisor of cers indiscriminately, and made citiregistration. He was the author of zenship in their neighborhood dangerous. that concentrated embodiment of fiendish malignity and ingenuity, could have been successfully pursued. our last registration bill; and gave our paper, the St. Joe Vindicator, as a principal reason for bloods. They referred their dispute about don, recently, between two English urging its passage. When his name weapons to Gny Livingstone, the author, was, soon afterward, mentioned in and he selected the hard whip, to the connection with the congressional disgust of both. But the fight proceeded, might furnish the desired article. nomination in the Palmyra district, and each slathered the other, in the presence of a great crowd, to their hearts', and especially to their hide's, satisfaction. tions, by publishing the most hideous Alas, to what a degraded depth has sunk and scandalous sketch of him, that this ancient and noble barbarism. ever appeared in regard to any man

CHOLERA!

Fatal Duel between an Editor and Caucasian Advice to Panicky Mor-

The grim and gripy monster, a-straddle New Orleans has been the scene of his skeleton steed, is marching along of many notable as well as monover the land, scattering death, terror and strong events during the past decade green apples, wherever he comes. He pitched his headquarter-tent and unfurled It was there that the spoon-thief, his skull-and-cross-bony standard, in Picayune Butler, issued his order Tennessee's ill-fated capital, late Brown- against the chastity of virtuous wo low's vestibule of hell; and in a moment, man. It is there that the wildest in the twinkling of a william-goat's caudal dream of mongrelism has well nigh shoo-fly, all was horror and discomboberation along the Cumberland. A whole city been realized. It is there that shrank away at the touch of his fleshless articulate gorillas and sniffling scalfingers; fled, in affright, from the glance awags and carpet bagabonds hold of his green scummy eyes. Like the an sway. There Pinckback, and Long cient Assyrian bummers, the hapless street, and Kellogg, and Beauregard Nashvillians awoke, one morning, to find and other white and black Africans themselves all dead corpuses. Sounds of wholesale lamentation rose upon the organize tax-levying expeditions in sickened air. The grisly ilium and duoone quarter, to get the means with denum wrencher and squeezer had done which to hold nude and satanic His scouts darted, on phantom Voudoo exhibitions in another. It race - nags, hither and thither and was there that a corrupt and damevery-whither. Brownsville, Murfreesboro, Lebanon and Chattanooga, quiet nable Federal judge sold himself to against mighty odds for the boon little burgs far out of Pestilence's psual outes, and fancying themselves securely office and steeping his soul in perthe marksmanship of his random raiders, dition, succeeded, with the aid of head of a glorious cause destined to n a commingled howl of woe. No deep Grant and the devil, in defeating the live on those pages of the world's hisnountain dell so hidden and secret, no will of the people, overturning the tory, where are written the heroic cloud-punching crag so high and approachess, but his shadowy troopers nosed it out and appalled it. On right, and left, and all around, with every rising and setting a popularly-overwhelmed clique of and independence; - Jefferson Davis, of the sun, a wail went up from famlies stricken and households bereaved. Reinforced and emboldened, he is pre-conspirators. paring to take the field on a broader and a grander scale. His advance-guards, his appers and miners, cholera-morbuses, ysenteries, diarrheas, gooseberry colics, and miscellaneous waistbandal miser- cuting attorney in the Jeffryan land of his birth, by an army Only 15,000 out of 40,000 people left; all corner in the prospective pie, and Egypt ;- E en J fferson Davis, afhe rest dead or skedaddied. The adjacent nountains filled with refusees. Hotels and usiness houses closed. Panie and ruin avorting, on forty-foot-long-legged high orses, through every street and alley. and reveling in all such dens of loath- through its own depravity, ruled devil-heated crucible of yankee hate meness as the Republican-Banner pig- against the defendants on every point and detraction, as bright in characgery and kennel. Respectable death rates in Louisville and Paducah. Several lefuncts trotted out daily, in porkopolitan Cincinnati. Cases reported all over Misissippi, Alabama and Georgia. A tew oons. The hostility of Judge, attor- states in arms, demanding a manly Louis. Scare at Cairo, Moberly and Kacsis City. Even Lexingtonian shotecarypoppers having to get their boots conoled, from ceaseless day-and-night three of the jurymen have since de could not be guilty of. That infamous prancing to fill prescriptions of anti- clared on oath that they were bribed and shameful lie, which could only He had told the ladies that the place ogshead of brandy to a dram of opium all along the line. Pill-paggers rampant was taken to the Supreme Court. winging their pukes, potions, plasters and assafetidic perfumes, over the ghast- days. Then came the sequel, and a ment of his arrest, is now declared driven all over the township, around y pinchy-paunched forms of a people

Citizens and citizenesses of Lexington, would you escape a tussle with the fell yune. Cooley is the cognomen of Truth, like murder, will out, even started without having to go through prairie-ship, ought to be abandoned. We destroyer? Then hear the how, and heed the dastard who degraded his from such a source as this. "An St. Louis or Omaha, position to persecute, insult, outrage dead as a hunted coyote. He were his disinfection may be worth a hogshead of a defendant tellie the Jeffryan soul." It would be good for the soul life out telegraphing ahead for milk cholera-panaceas or a ton of collapse- court. A challenge. A duel. A in this case, if there were any soul; and sugar teats for the always-famished flued corpses. One dollar spent in pre- meeting in Miss ssippi. Weapons- but it is as good for the vindication ventative purifaction, may save you $500 double-barreled shot-guns, loaded of history, as if there were a soul at in wilt-headed pails, tasteful and commowith balls. First discharge-no. stake. Read this pitiful yankee lious coffins, free rides for your friends body hurt. Second fire -a slug of lead | confession of a long-kept lie : black-bordered handkerchiefs to catch rocodile tears, crape, hearse-plumes, et through the heart of a devil-possessd omne miscellaneous and assorted dis- ed official, and his soul is marching mal humbuggery and flabdubbery. A on the same road that Ossawottamie handful of burnt brimstone now, may

Louisiana.

preserve you from premature paddling boot-legs. Burn all Radical papers, dirty socks, last year's mustard-plasters and bustles. Thoroughly swab the mouths of all your blackguard boys, once a two or three miles below town. Lay in six months, with a bouquet in his but volunteer courts. For instance, these

While the circumstances are to be deplored, we see no milder course which

A duel was fought in Picadilly, Lor physic and coffins for two!

other malefactors have taken. in a whole lake of the melted article And thus ends another chapter in hereafter. Scrape, scrub, fumigate, purify. Fire a little sulphur, and think, the startling and spectacular combinwith tearful eyes and and averted snoot, tion of comedy, melo-drama and of Brownlow's lot in the great, red-hot tragedy, known as Modern Times in To-Come. Clean out all gutters, hen-

Brown, Lincoln, Stanton and all day, with strong soap-suds; and be beroes of 1812, who bears the scars careful after washing your ears, to of wounds received at Chippewa have the water emptied into the river, and Lundy's Lane, while battling a sideboard - plunderer and pantry - thief in a good supply of cholera literature, quack almanaes, delineations of ciously "glerious republic." now symptoms, and two or three dozen diverse and contradictory systems of treatment. Carefully peruse the daily morlanguishes in the poor-house of Nicholas county, Kentucky. He has never received an acre of bountyknow what I am talking about. I saw Jeff. ment. Carefully peruse the daily mor- has never received an acre of bountytality reports of all infected cities. Make land or a cent of pension; and at the disease the exhilarating topic of conversation on every possible occasion. Dis- four-score years, finds himself doomcuss it at the dinner-table. Descant elo- ed to the miserable rags and swillquently upon it at breakfast and tea-time. soup of modern charity, till a rude pearance in our midst, and the fatality pine-box and a nigger-driven one-Surmise upon the probability of its apthat would be likely to ensue, when your mule cart shall bear his weary old bones to some despised and weedparson pays his visit to inquire into he state of your soul and the condition grown "potters' field."

YANKEEDOODLE'S GRATITUDE.

Should not, will not, the carses of a just God fall hot and heavy on a meeting, festival, picnic and shin-dig. Think of it all day, and dream of it government, which consigns its all night. Indulge liberally in little bul- aged, war-worn patriots to paupers' let-apples, green-corn and cucumbers. cells and panpers' graves,-while it Fancy, every time one of your abdomsquanders untold millions on nigger you've got it now sure, and run for a doctor, or take a stiff dose of whisky and pay congressional thieves and malginger. And if your widow don't have efactors, and wandering presidential the fun of angling for another husband. free-lunchers, horse jockeys and seawith your life-insurance money for a bait: side carousers ?-Spends hundre is of or your beart-broken widower isn't seen, thousands in asmine bumluzz'o celebrations of the defunct Fourth ton-hole, trying to persuade some frecklelit out for eternity, folded the faced and red-headed Sarah-Jace or Me- of July,-while the gray-haired condrapery of his couch about him hitable to play step-mother to your snub- turians who a blood and trea-ure period of our bussed republic, totter A band of vigilantes in Wetzel county, in tatters and s'arvation, unwept, Bah! Away with such damnable, base, ineffable ingratitude! Down a few years ago, was a prominent families to leave at a moment's warning with 1-4 of July fol-de rols and Courier. A three-tailed pashaw of outlaws had long defied all legal of 1280, for the means of expressing the deep trouble that sits like a nightmare's brood of mule-coles on her perturbed brain;

"The King sits in Dumierline town, Drinking his binde-red wine, Drinking his binde-red wine, Oh, where shall I get a skeely skipper, To sail this ship of mine?" It is impossible for us to reply at once without reflection. F r present relief, try a fine-tooth comb. They fetch "skeely skippers'' every time. As a dernier resort, a piece of cheese from one of our high-toned and patriotic fancy grocers'

.... President Grant-our noble Washing ton- No. 3-authorizes us to say to the readers of the Caucasian that he was not drunk on his late Western gift-receiving tour as stated by us. We hasten gladly in this state. Every word we uttermodel marrylst. He has drawn to his not now believe that be was drunk, though but one colleague. Thirdly, his colleague, over to the prisoner's pen, and carried ed was true; and it ended him. He throbbing buzzum no less than four living it's possible he was inconveniently full, being a Radical, may also have any number him on their shoulders out of the court-

AT LAST!

QUICK VENGEANCE.

Corrupt Official.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE CAP-TURE OF PRESIDENT JEF-FERSON DAVIS.

THAT WOMAN'S-DRESS AND PAIL OF-SLOP DISQUISE

CONFESSED BY YANKS TO HAVE BEEL

"Truth is mighty and will prevail; -the eternal years of God are her's." Even in vankee land, and among the most degraded race of natural liars on earth, the truth of history is being vindicated. Jefferson Davis, the spotless chieftain of a nation of heroes struggling

a faction, and by prostituting his of self-government, liberty, and right; -Jefferson Davis, the representative autonomy of the state, and putting sacrifices and blood-baths of all peothe reins of power into the hands of ples who ever fought for manhood the tyrant - and - myrmidon - deposed It is in this same place, too, that President of the Confederate States. put-up presecution against the escaping indignities, personal mis-Picayune was begun. A knave use, a felon's cell, chains, and sued the proprietors for $100,000 perhaps the gallows; then pursudamages; and Judge Cooley, press. ed, hunted down, an alien in the court of "Judge" Hawkins, before of blood-thirsty savages and maniacs whom the case was tried, took a as nomerous as the locust-plague of made his court one of the most ty- ter years of malignity, falsehood, rannical and diabelical machines ever | marepresentation, heaped mountainrun on earth. The Court, under high upon his bonored and devoted his unscrupulous counse's, and bead, one ges from the mammoth, -overruled the p'ain letter of the ter, anharmed in reputation, as when, law, and sat an enthroned despot, twelve years ago, he took upon his The incomen were most'y buck hab, shoulders the responsibilities of ten ney and jury became so notorious, that redress of long-borne grievances, he defendants abandoned their cause Jefferson Davis stands acquitted, by and withdrew from court. A verdict the confessions of his captors, of in the sum of $400 a-piece to find have been hatched in the craven was but a quarter of a mile distant. for the plaintiff. An appeal, of course, soul of a yankee, that Jefferson Da- When he came to a stopping-place, he vis wore a woman's dress and had a recognized his wife's face and his own and so the matter rested for a few pail of slop on his head at the mo- home. He had himself lost his way, to have been, what every patriot his own farm eleven times, and got Cot. Rhett is elitor of the Pica- knew it was, a gigantic falsehood. back to the place from which he driving a four-rabbit-power commissary

> [From the Portland (Me.) Argus.] I am no admirer of Jeff, Davis. I am lices; but I think it wicked to he ever

I was with the party that captured Jeff. Davis; saw the whole transaction trop he beginning. I now say, and hope you will publish it.—that Jeff. Davis did no garment such as is worn by women. did have over his shoulders a water-proof article of clothing—something like a "Havelock." It was not in the least con-ceased. He wore a hat; and did not carry a pail of water on his head, nor carry oall or kettle in any way. To the best any person that her husband might hur haved like a lady, and he as a gentleman. though manifestly be was chagrined at oe our officers like honorable, brave men Davis many times while he was staying at Portland, several years ago; and I think I that he was certainly taken, some news-paper correspondent,—I knew his name at the time,—fabricated the story about he disguise in an old woman's dress.

I heard the whole matter talked over as served all the contempt that could be put spon libin. I shick so too, only I would never perpending a falsehood that by any rans wou'd become historic. And, who has shown so much devotion as Mrs wicked he is or may have been ike or nodige field on that remasion. I go for trying time for his trimes, and if are is found guilty, punish him, but I would not be about him when the truth would not be about him when the truth National Grange. That he will never pro-

Many of the great men of the world, it nodern times, have been practical print made that day famous, as the natal ers, toilers at the "case," the "click! chck! click!" of whose type in the "stick" has been a music of inspiration terpretation: "A good laborer places tath in God." In the female degree corfied accomplishments, a Presbyterian West Virginia, calling themselves "Mo- a honored and unsung, to beggars' The Earl of Stanhope was a practical printer; so is Prince Frederick William, son-in-law of the English queen. Wm. tor and Suepherdess, the Harvester and Caxton, the father of English literature. Gleaner, and the Husbandman and Matron Caxton, the father of English literature, Douglas Jerrold and Charles Dickens, were printers; beside many other eminer Thiers, of France, is a practical printer; ister to that country from this-Benjamin an was also a printer, and Horace Greeley, who ought to have been President. Geo. D. Prentice, Bayard Taylor, Gov. tor Niles, and thousands of others in this country, are also practical printers who

> That great rural daily, the Moberly Enterprise, disseminates this information: 'Senator Mirchell is to be pitied, inasmuch as he will go into the Senate with could possibly be; having been elected by cleared by a jury of his saloonic peers, en." Instead of "great man," insert the past year. By burns and

LEXINGTON GIRLS IN THE COUNTRY.

Several young ladies, accompanied by a youngster of some forty summers, all of Lexington village, went Wellington-ward a week or two ago, on a visiting and lounging expedi-dition. The party started to a Navigating Around a Farm al Night.

neighbor's, but night overtook them, August. and they had to halt at a house and ask the way. A loud voice but no answer came back. A chorus of field on the Sth. female calls, screams and shricks, and a spectre appeared in the front door. The gentleman, who had thus summarily been summoned from a sweet snoring tournament with his wife, was not as fully equipped as etiquette vigorously demands; but the night was as dark as Erebus, and as he could not hear very dis- when they get abroad, is spoken of by the tinctly, he approached the vehicle, feeling safe in the gloom. Just then a flash of lightning revealed the fact to the dazzled vision of a quantity of bright feminine optics, that posers through the consolatory ministrahe had on nothing in the world but a bandana night-cap and a clean rag around a sore-toe. With the bound of a panther he disappeared through and shouted to the belated ladies. he had slid into his pants and reappeared covered with blushes and filled with biccuping "ahems." The trouble was soon explained. The ladies had lost their way to such-and-such a place; would the gentleman be so good as to direct them. Would he? The reader might invest his last nickel that he would. Ah, yes, ladies, the night was so dark, he would just get in the vehicle with them and drive over to his neighbor's. So he started out. That wagon went on and on, it thumped this way of the Enterprise, escapes a terrible and that way, it ran awhile on one choleratic visitation. wheel, while the ladies hung out to trim ship, then it rolled back on the the 120-pounders of Southern Presbyterother side. The gloom was impenetrable. But the wagon went on and on, and the hours fled with sure Son." He is supposed to have had Blair, was secured for the whole sum ; but what every Southern man knew be but tardy step, like stealthy spirit of the Eagle in name, but Buzzard in refootmen on the miry sands of time.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

Peeping Into Secret Places.

Everything connected with the new and great order which is spread-over the whole country, and especial-the people for a sure and sweeping reformation, we have determined.

from patriotic motives, to encourage its progress and to render it, as far as possible, a power for the land in a common brotherhood.

To outsiders, but little, as yet, is known as to its internal workings, but the little light which has shone out from its secret places, has been anything but uncertain or danger-by authority or guess-work, hands us the following, which is declared to be additional information. A critical perusal of the secret workclusion that we have not been mistaken as to its nature, but that, on the contrary, there is a high probability, that the farmers will accomplish much good for all the people, socially, morally and politically. We

The first degree is that of the Laborer who, after being led around the hall three times, makes outh that he will never wrong or defraud one of them.

The penalty for a violation of his oath expuision from the order. He then re ceives the pass-words, signals and degree responding to the Laborer, the Maid, the same obligations are imposed. The re-maining degrees are those of the Cultiva-in each of which degrees the candidates imply renew the pledges made in the

The pledges which they take do not in previous degrees, and promise to be true lous or social duties. One degree is just

Their purpose is the same, they are bound the farmers have pledged their lives, fortunes and sacred honors, and they do not another lynching case. Delos Heffren, once Radical acting Secretary of State of same obligations, and punished sign, the latter bearing the following

he speaks :

one who pretends to know whereof of a thousand dollars a day.

ality, in his spectacles, when he selected thing from it without giving credit. The as Democratic journals of the United tates without an appropriate lucral con-

The Moberly Monitor gives us this pious tem: An amusing, as well as a touching ncident took place in the vicinity of the Methodist church yesterday morning. An individual who had taken an undue quantity of "coffin tax" was found in a praying with such wonderful rapidity erful attitude and guahing forth strains of religious sentiment. The officer, after ly in the West and Northwest, and watching the man for some time, tapped him on the shoulder and inquired what which may throw light upon it, is he was doing: "I am trying to serve God." ought and read with avidity by the replied the kneeling man, and again remasses. Believing in our inmost sumed his prayer. Prayers at the same gizzard, that the new order offers a time were being offered up on the inside timely, and perhaps the last, hope of of the church, and it is evident that, although saturated with liquor, the man had conscientious scruples, and upor bearing the services on the inside, knell down on the outside and indulged in religious manifestations. The officer took him to the "little church around the corner." and this morning he prayed for good by uniting all the pure men of mercy, and was let off for $5 KENTUCKY NOTES.

Kentucky farmers are going to plant ar throughout the state during the past week. ous. The Chicago Tribune, whether The yield will be large.

Most of the parties engaged in the attempt to rob a bank at Chillicothe, Mo. last week, are Kentuckians. Dr. H. A. M. Henderson, one of the finest pulpit orators in the state, lectured ings of the order leads us to the con- at Louisville the other day, on "The Girl of the Period." James M. Fidler is a register of bankruptcy, in the Covington district. The busted are required to dance up to his court and pay the Fidler. Dr. J. L. McKee, paster of the Presbyterian church at Danville, is raising the, append the subjoined statement by endowment for Center College at the rate

> A German Sunday-School pienic, which took place near Maysville, last Sunday week, was enlivened with a stabbing case or two and the usual amount of recreative

A. J. and G. W. Donahoe, farmers residing near Greenupsburg, were arrested the other day and taken to Minnesota, pose an improper person for membership; and that he will render assistance to all his brethren, and that he will not knowingto be tried for a murder committed two

Rev. W. W. Taylor, a colored Baptist preacher, of Louisville, has a suit on hand to the inconsiderable tune of $10,-000 damages, for fooling around a female treet in Paris, complaining of the heat, leclare she was almost ready to melt. Well, " chu:kled the old darkey-man who had her in charge, "when sugar melts, it turns to 'lasses, anyhow, he, he,

The Louisville Courier-Journal has abandoned its "Small-Talk" department. In its closing hours, "Small Talk" suceeded in reaching a degree of infinitesimal gabble so light and airy that the edwith the same exasperating penalty. Their secrets are substantially developed in the new Declaration of Independence, to which itor had to nudge the reader in the side, to indicate the right place for the laugh to come in. But the "Small Talk" Editor! Lucky fellow. He has since been promoworked at the 'case,' the best school in conflict with the farmer's moral, social, ted to an engineership on a horse-car. the world to learn the truth about the religious or civil duties. ompound of Live - Forever - Jones and pensioned P. M. at Covington, and daddy thorough-bred equine stock, "Harvest Hoosierdom, the murderer of numerous of the poorest stick that ever had greatness victims and marrier of their widows. thrust upon it, -is non-est, defunct, dead. two bad names, while his Republican col- was taken out of the Salem jail, last Sat- In the language of busted Brick Pomeroy, In the first urday, and most beautifully hanged to a when the Radicals scared him into writing place, Senator Hipple-Mitchell is as much bridge beam. In a trial some time since a enlogy of the dead tyrant Abe, "the a Republican as any of his "colleagues" for killing a man named Johnson, he was nation mourns, for a great man has fall- were killed in the United States during

The Beecher-Bowen slander case is bodies, 712; railroad accidents, 1,580; sank rapidly from public notice, gave up his editorship, took to hard drinking, and finally went west.

May God have mercy on his soui! throbbing buzzum no less than four living it's possible he was inconveniently iti. free and feolicky. To get drunk a man fre progressing. Specific charges have been mining accidents, 365; injuries by machin-

GENERAL NEWS.

THE WORLD IN EPITOME.

Small-pox is after the pig-talls in Sa The yanks of Fort Worth have had it

A majority of the Ex-Queen Isabella is viewing the curisities at Vienna. Powers, the world-famed A menagerie of traveling Chicago bur-> onservative victory. Only seven countles of enetrated by railroads.

A number of our exchanges continue venring of a tow neck-tie. insist that great bodies of real estate are Large deposits of fire clay disco changing hands at their several locations u Vigo county, Hoosierdom Great woodland fires in Canada.

Pennsylvania expends eight and a half nillion dollars annually in the futile at-

Exposure of the affected parts to the olistering sun is said to have arrested

The San Francisco mint puts out $3.

000,000 in coin each month. Gold for the

During the prevalence of the cholera at Nashville, no less than 15,000 people fled

The price of Italian slaves in New York city, ranges from $100 to $400 for boys and $500 for girls. The traffic is rapidly

Old Woodson, the Irish-potato, Ger-

That's nearly the size of the one the city-nearly half the inhabitants.

empt to banish ignorance.

ase of rheumatism at Dubuque.

office-holders; rags for the people.

A. Slaughter, formerly of this interesting f charcoal and fried Canucks. village, which is so prolific of great men Thirty thousand Texas beeve heir way to Coffeeville, Kansa. Boonville papers, as "one of our distin New York is to have a million dolla ashery to be called the Buckingham. St. Louis has four whost-scared vound The Sloux Indians refuse to leave their infidels, who are seeking peace from noceservation in Wyoming and Nebraska. turnal serenaders, orators, and letter com-The Shah of Persia -(O, pshah!)tions of a priest. They were country wears a two million dollar suit of duds. youths, fearfully worked upon by restless St. Petersburg was grandly illuminated on the 26th ult., in honor of the capture Jacob See's big.4.000-pound ox."Stone of Khiva wall Jackson. " is on a traveling tour. Meridian, Miss., observed the gloriou his doorway, raised a window He has a pard, a two-year-old baby comof July by hanging a malefactor. Appanion, which pulls down the scales to "Hold on!" In thirteen seconds the 3,000 notch. They are native Missou-Hamilton, Nevada, ascended to th rians, and either would make a better Governor than Woodson

STATE HASH.

Pogson is lecturing by the bolt at Car

Masonic corner-stone-laving for a new college at North Springfield last week

bad; -we mean the 1 of July tomfoolera-

Carthagenian Methodists talk of having an old-fashioned camp-meeting

glars, called a circus, will sfflict Spring-

A. Moore was fatally injured near Carthage by a mower. No more will A Lather both hands.

Cholera raging in St. Louis.

last Sunday.

Brisk business among the Kansas City indertakers, owing to the sudden appearance and growing fatality of that Coronto, Canada. delightfully vigorous and much-abused old Asiatic, the cholera. Funerals passing through the streets every twenty minutes. Great alarm. People flying to

The Moberly Enterprise has been smellno some awful scents about that town. for a long time, and knew not whence they came. Now it knows. The toes o the Headlight editor have been disinfected, and Moberly, through the enterprise

Rev. Dr. Grasty, of Kentucky, one o ianism, and author of a biography of the late Dr. McPheeters, preached in Boonville last Sunday week, on the "Prodigal

That enterprising little Radical snoutag, printed in the Frenchified village of ape Girardeau, and called in clongated omenclature. "The South-East Misourian," ought not to steal whole colnns from the Caucasian, or publish any ship of about 2,000,000 Husbandmen A durned fool at Hartford, Conn., has bequeathed $20,000 for the "support and education' of lame horses. Bet two bits his sister washes for a living. Tennie C. Clafflin and Victoria Wood-wear on week days.

Exposition

charge of issuing obscene publications. The young Prince of Sweden is to visit this country. Another chance for our Republican he and she flunkeys to lick the boots of a foreign titular nincompoop. A Johnny Chinamau is to deliver the annual address before the Hampden (Nastychusetts) Agricultural Society. He will read from the mashed-bug end of a tea-

Italy has been fearfully shaken up by an earthquake, causing great loss of life and property in the Northern provinces Things there now are more italic than ever before. Fearful explosion of nitro-glycerine and giant powder in Virginia City, Nevada, on the 1st. Ten or fifteen killed, and a large number wounded. The town was literally wrecked. A. II. Smith was hanged at Springfield, Nastychusetts, Friday of last week. He had only murdered C. D. Sackett, when he ought to have punched half a million more of the same sort. The Brazilian government has decided that no Papal bull can be promulgated in that country, without its consent having first been secured. A restriction upon the free importation of fine stock. A Wyoming female lawyer defended her husband in a case in court, and won the suit by talking the judge to death. When last seen he was lying stiff on the floor, and the old gal whispering in his ear. Gen. Howard rises to explain. Certain bonds have taken wings and sped hellward, like everything in these Radical times, in and out of Freedmen's Bureauism, which means the whole national Butler is said to be the leading candidate for the Radical nomination to the Governorship of Bedlamitic Nastvehusetts. He is supported by the Administration, and the Bourbon Democracy. So says a dispatch .

The New York World gives fifteen reasons why every citizen of that great, lirty and wicked city ought to take the cholera. The only rebutting reason that suggests itself to us, is that the cholera would have the worst of the tussle. A Maine youth is on trial for chopping open the heads of his father, mother, sisters, brother, and a baby, with an ax, and then setting the house on fire. The spirit of Cain led him on to unveil the full sweetness of a live young yankee in the bud.

Maine is proud of an old woman, aged open the heads of his father, mother, sis-Maine is proud of an old woman, aged quit drinking because of the high price of the juice. She does her own work, runs a farm, and is some pumpkins in that frigid and semi-barbarous British Fearful tornado at Galesburg, near Parons, Kansas, last Tuesday night. Houses, trees, fences, everything swept before it. By the destruction of Mrs. Giddings' house, three children were killed, and she injured. Several other persons were killed or tatally injured. Whopping prices. Who wouldn't be a torse-seller? At a recent sale, in San Mateo, California, of S. B. Whipple's Queen" brought $16,500; "Hambletonian," $10,150; and "Speculation," $8, 500. Aggregate amount of sale $120, Eleven thousand five hundred people 3,391; explosions, 200; falls, 2,074; falling proprietors of tining agency. ery, 429; gunshot wounds, 429; other

Walworth, Junior, the a Walworth, Senior, whose trial in New ered this (Saturday) morning, at 10:30. This poetic parricide will make a hand coolly, merely remarking that nothing could be done with him. zine, copper and gold-bearing quartz mines have been discovered in Yell, Pertone-cutter, is dead. ry, Conway and Pulaski countles, Rack-The elections in England resulted nsack. The first item, in pill form, ought to be consumed at home in rendering the state inhabitable by its citizens. Try it on Clayton and Hadley. It has cost Stokes $150,000 to put off th

Two fools of New York, went over into Canada the other day to fight a duel. They took a single pop at each other but as no officers came to arrest them the duel was postponed till another occasion, when it is hoped to have the police come up at the proper moment as indi-

York, has been going on for a week past, has been found guilty of murder in the econd degree. Sentence will be deliv-

Omaha lottery swindler, was escaping to Germany at the time of his arrest. He is one of the slickest dollar-ticket confidence-gamers in the country. When arrested at Leavenworth he took it quite

Within a short time, lead, silver, tin.

cated in all leading dime novels. The Texas Pacific railroad is said to be a fabulously wealthy corporation in land grants. Beside the lands granted to it on the main route, it gobbles up the Memphis and El Paso reservations, and owns mmense possessions in California and the territories. Add to this Tom Scott's syndicate for pin money, and we begin to anderstand what is the magnitude of some of the money powers raising their heads

In an account of a grand Masonic ce ebration on St. John's Day, the Mt. Sterling, Illinois, Message, of June 26. louds in smoke, and is no more a terra- says: "The opening prayer was followed by an oration by Rev. Peter Donan. Two children named Darkins were burwhich fully sustained his reputation as a speaker, being an able and argumentaed, a few days since, in a sand pit at ive exposition of the principles of Mason The Confederate cemetery at Fayette strewn with illustrations and classical alfile, Arkansas, was impressively dead-usions, which was listened to with marked attention by the entire audi-

TEXAS TOUCHES. Navasota had a blaze the other day.

Wheat crop harvested; yield immense, A $50,000 prospective college in Den Corn. 60ets: flour. $2 to $6.40 per

Eighteen new brick houses in Dallas,

The lively hoppergrass feedeth in Hoc Track-laying on the Columbus branch nan-beer and native-whisky orator, is to Large immigration by wagon to Grayorate at the opening of the Kansas City Ed. Jenkins, of Antonio, is a prospe

A London firm of lapidaries have just ive Haman. eceived a Cape diamond worth $100,000. Mounted perlice scour the section adj:

Up to latest date, there have been organized 3,400 granges, with a member-

Roasting ears, almost as long as those our editorial cotems. A tarmer at El Paso, felt something null, the notorious strumpet editors of run down his back, the other day, while

New York, have been cleared of the sitting in his wagon. It was a greased of streak of lightning.

All persons indebted to the late firm of Tunconested to call and settle their accounts at nce. The business must be closed up; and nemselves trouble and expense

H. B. TUNSTALL. Surviving partner of firm of Tunstall & Son. CAPT. JACK CAPTURED

Intense Excitement Concerning the Bender Family. WO OF THEM ARE CAPTURED-FULL

PARTICULARS. THE greatest excitement prevails in this cit A concerning the astounding news, that Ge Zeiler charges only twelve cents per foot i hanging gutter and pipe. Warranted to be the best material used in the sity Count er; and northeast quarter of the southeast quar-er, and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section twenty-five (25), in township fity-one (51), and range twenty-six (26), which conveyance was made in trust to secure the

MARCUS L. WHITSETT TRUSTEE'S SALE.

THURSDAY, THE 10711 DAY OF JULY, A.

FARM FOR SALE.

90, who smokes and chews, and only one of the very best farms in the state, and is situated in a pleasant neighborhood and convenient to the churches, achools, &c. It will be sold together or will be divided, if the improvements are wanted with less land. Terms easy. Apply to the undersigned, upon the premises. If the shows of the o'clock p. m. of that day, at the city of Waveriges. If the shows discribes between the hours of ten o'clock p. m. of that day, at the city of Waveriges. W. JOHN CLOWDSLEY,

GENERAL COLLECTOR LEXINGTON, MO.

For Housekeepers. REMOVAL

ADAM TOEPPE HAS REMOVED

His grocery store from Main-Cross to Charles street, one toor east of Bachr's Cave, where he will continue the grocery and provision business in all its branches; hoping to see all my old customers and as many new ones as will favor me with their calls. Especial attention given to country produce, and the highest market price will be paid for it. Also the, best sugar, codec, tens, candies, cigars tobacco, liquors, fancy goods, syrups, oils and the best grades of flour, which I will sell for cash, and as cheap as any house in Lexington.

New Meat Shop. people of Lexington and vicinity, that I have fitted up ameat shot at Market-house, on Franklin street, where I will keep the best BEEF,

MUTTON, VEAL, PORK,

THOMAS GIBBONS.

General Dealer in

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS, WINES, LIQUORS, CIGARS, TOBACCO, WOOD AND WILLOW-WARE, NOTIONS. S.HOOL BOOKS, FLOUR

AND FEED STORE.

HIGHEST market price paid for all kinds of oduce. I keep a general assortment of a of all kinds. I solicit a call from my any part of the city FREE.
febs-ly THOMAS GIBBONS.

NEW SADDLE AND HARNESS ry, abounding in strong points and thickly MANUFACTORY.

PINE STREET, north of O. S. Přeshyterian Church, Lexington, Mo. My work is NOT MADE BY BOYS, but by experi-T. C. CRENSHAW

BAPTIST FEMALE COLLEGE, LEXINGTON, MISSOURI. A. F. Fleet, A.M , Prest. ate Prof. Greek and German and Acting

President William Jewell College. THE next annual session will begin tages for an education, both solid and dismental.

Terms: Board, including furnished room, fuel and lights, per session of forty weeks, $180; washing seventy-five cents per dozen; tuition in collegiate department, $50; in academic, $40; in preparatory, $35; lessons on plano, organ or guitar, (with use of instrument) $40.

Bills payable semi-annually in a-trance.
For Catalogues or further information address
the President, Lexington, Mo. [adybyl] NOTICE NO BRIDGE BUILD-

SEALED proposals will be received up to 12 o'clock MONDAY, JUNE 30th, 1873, for the building of a Pine Truss Bridge, (Sub-structure piling) I one span of one hundred and twenty feet, over the east fork of the Big Sni-acreek, on the road leas Cobb's Mill.
Also for one bridge of same material, size and

FULL SUPPLY

LIME! LIME!

AT 75cts PER BARREL MEASURE JOHN D. WRIGHT.

A LL persons are hereby notified that my war Zurilda Shore, having left by bed as board, without just cause or provocation, I was be responsible for no debts contracted by he or for her benefit. ELECTION OF TEACHERS.

NOTICE is bereby given that the election of teachers for the Public Schools of Lexington, Mo., by the Board of Education of said city, will be held on the first Monday, the 7th day, of July, 1873. The salaries fixed for the ensuing year are as follows: FIRST WARD SCHOOL cipal, per calendar month.....

cipal High School, per cal, month. st Assistant in Ward School .. Principal, per catendar month. 1st Assistant, said schools, must the their written applica-tions, accompanied by their certificates from the County Superintendent of Public schools, with the Secretary of the Board, on or before the said day. By order of the Board, TRUSTEE'S SALE. WHEREAS, Elizabeth Games and her hus-band, Thomas N. Games, by their deed of trust, dated January 13, 1871, and recorded in the Recorder's office for Lafayette county,

VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested that the undersigned guardian of the person and estate of Ada Drysdale, a minor, has filed his account for final settlement of said minor's estate at the April term, 1873, of the Lafayette county Probate court, and will apply for a final discharge from said guardianship at the July term, 1873, of said court, to be holden on Monday, the 7th day of July, 1873.

jne7w5 JOHN M. EWING, Guardian.

FINAL SETTLEMENT.